

Rockville Md
Box - 289
Feb. 15, 1945

Mrs. Mouley:

Your letter came today, there was a delay because there was an error in my mail, it went to Leavenworth, Kansas where I was discharged. I am now in Rockville, my address is Box 289, Rockville, Md.

I wrote to you when I was discharged from the service, speaking of my conditions of the ball, I am sorry you did not get it. I do want to play base ball with the

(3)

I want to play base ball and I figure I can help the team. My job in the Army was giving exercise, that is how I was able to keep my self in good shape.

I am glad to know the fellows are out of the service have and I hope they will be out to start the season with the team. I am feeling fine, just waiting to hear how my contract will be.

Since the fellows are coming out of the services

(2)

Eagles and would like to play if I can make the team. I played base ball regular while I was in the service and made three all star teams. I am feeling fine and think

I am in fine shape. Since I have been discharged, I have been playing basket ball, my weight is 182 now I am working at the Naval Hospital for one month now but I still consider playing ball.

I have a family now, two children, so you can see just how I am situated.

(4)

this year should be one of our good seasons, I am quite sure every one is waiting to see how the teams are going to shape up.

I am sorry there was some delay in my return,
but from now on write me
to box 289.

I must come to a close now, waiting to hear from you.

Very Truly Yours
Clarence Isreal

(4)

This year should be one of our good seasons, I am quite sure every one is waiting to see how the teams are going to shape up.

I am sorry there was some delay in my return, but from now on write me to box 289.

I must come to a close now, waiting to hear from you.

Very Truly Yours
Clarence Darral

Rockville Md
Box - 289
Feb. 15, 1945

Mrs. Monley:

Your letter came today, there was a delay because there was an error in my mail, it went to Leavenworth, Kansas where I was discharged. I am now in Rockville, my address is Box 289, Rockville, Md.

I wrote to you when I was discharged from the service, speaking of my conditions of the ball, I am sorry you did not get it. I do want to play base ball with the